

MISSISSIPPI MATTERS.

NOTES OF PAST AND CURRENT EVENTS.

By J. L. POWER.

Committee in Postmaster's Bureau.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., July 1, 1898.
DEAR SIR:—I understand that you have been an industrious collector of data concerning the troops from Mississippi in the battle of Sharpsburg...

Report of the killed, wounded and missing in the battle of Sharpsburg, Md., Sept. 5, 1862.
Company A—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company B—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...

Company C—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company D—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company E—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...

Company F—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company G—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company H—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...

Company I—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company J—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company K—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...

Company L—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company M—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company N—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...

Company O—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company P—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...
Company Q—Wounded—Sergt. James H. ...

Union county for two years for sending an infernal machine from Holly Springs to New Albany, which exploded in the depot at New Albany, and by which several persons were injured. While the evidence against him was circumstantial, it was sufficient to convict him very closely with the crime. An appeal to the supreme court resulted in affirmance of sentence, and Nolan, by permission of the supreme court, came direct to the penitentiary without appeal of any kind. This is perhaps the only instance in the history of the prison where the State has been saved the expense of sending for a convict.

After several hours study of the case Governor McRae was heard to say: "Nolan, I will pardon your husband, John, prepare a pardon for Nolan." Mr. Cozart was rather overjoyed at a document of that kind, under such circumstances, than many other county jailers. It is recommended to the district in a primary election for railroad commissioner. Until this announcement Mrs. Nolan kept quite composed. That she and her husband were not in the least displeased for her husband was at first hard to believe. It was arranged to have him sent to the prison walls, where he was attended in civilian's clothes, and he met his wife a free man.

Max Longino.
The Columbus Dispatch is credited with the following very readable paragraph:
Max Longino was a Minnerton Backer of the first young leader to throw out the scales of false pretensions and take the position of a brewer, when his father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician. His father's father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician. His father's father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician.

Miss Longino.
The Columbus Dispatch is credited with the following very readable paragraph:
Miss Longino was a Minnerton Backer of the first young leader to throw out the scales of false pretensions and take the position of a brewer, when his father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician. His father's father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician.

Miss Longino.
The Columbus Dispatch is credited with the following very readable paragraph:
Miss Longino was a Minnerton Backer of the first young leader to throw out the scales of false pretensions and take the position of a brewer, when his father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician. His father's father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician.

Miss Longino.
The Columbus Dispatch is credited with the following very readable paragraph:
Miss Longino was a Minnerton Backer of the first young leader to throw out the scales of false pretensions and take the position of a brewer, when his father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician. His father's father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician.

Miss Longino.
The Columbus Dispatch is credited with the following very readable paragraph:
Miss Longino was a Minnerton Backer of the first young leader to throw out the scales of false pretensions and take the position of a brewer, when his father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician. His father's father was a wealthy merchant and a lawyer and politician.

GEN. JOE WHEELER PRAISES PERUNA, The Great Catarrh Cure.

Major General Joseph Wheeler, commanding the cavalry forces in front of Santiago and the author of "The Santiago Campaign," in speaking of the great catarrh remedy, Peruna, says: "I join with Senators Sullivan, Beach and McEbery in their good opinion of Peruna. It is recommended to those who have used it as an excellent tonic and particularly effective as a cure for catarrh."

United States Senator Sullivan.
I desire to say I have been taking Peruna for some time for catarrh, and have found it an excellent remedy, giving me more relief than anything I have ever taken.—W. V. Sullivan, Okmulgee, Miss.
United States Senator Beach.
Peruna is a tonic, and an agent to assist in the cure of catarrh. It has been advised by friends that it is remarkably efficacious as a cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh.—W. N. Beach, Laramie, North Dakota.

A free book on catarrh set by our address by The Peruna Drug Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Advertisement for John M. Smith's MAMMOTH MAIL ORDER HOUSE, featuring a large illustration of a mammoth and text about 98c. for a pair of elefant gait curtains.

Advertisement for SMITH'S SURE KIDNEY CURE, including testimonials and a list of names of satisfied customers.